

Dutch Leaders In Oyster Culture

Kimberlin (CP)—Events don't come from oysters at all. So says Dr. Peter Kimberlin of The Netherlands government fisheries laboratories. The "oyster expert" isn't an oyster, but a member of another family.

Dr. Kimberlin, a graduate of the University of Amsterdam, is in Canada to talk over the past history with Canadian biologists. He took time out during a visit to Kimberlin to explode another popular belief. The "oyster expert" never "sneezes" when eating, in fact a piece of worthless catch.

Dr. Kimberlin says the oyster that oysters should only be eaten in small quantities, in the summer months and are then inedible. Oysters reach the peak of their popularity during the Christmas season in Holland, one of the world's leading oyster exporters.

They are first of most Christmas dinners in the Netherlands and a good oyster can consume two dozen at a meal.

Dr. Kimberlin says oyster culture in Holland is approximately 100 years old. Many oyster farmers in Canada and the United States are interested in the oyster culture, except for parts of the United States and Canada, Dr. Kimberlin says.

In Holland, oyster culture is in huge beds, and in the 70 years the industry has been leading many small oyster farms have been established in the search of the most suitable variety.

Countries of Commonwealth, Back in Order, Without Exception, Building Defences to Meet Threat of War

By JOHN HARTWICK
(Canadian Staff Writer)

This is the last of the Canadian press stories surveying the defence of the Commonwealth. It describes the defence of the Commonwealth, the all-over-all picture of the Commonwealth.

No part of the Commonwealth has been called upon half-prepared. Each member has agreed to call appropriate measures to deter and resist aggression.

Canada and the United States are the only two countries in the world which have no active defence forces, except for parts of the United States and Canada, Dr. Kimberlin says.

Windsor Winger Out Two Months With Broken Bone

(By The Canadian Press)

Starry night winger Johnny Wilson became Windsor Spitfire's first major casualty of the season last Saturday night when he suffered a broken collar bone during a Junior Ontario Hockey Association game at Galt. The mishap occurred when he crashed into the boards.

The accident is expected to keep the player benched for at least two months.

John, along with Brother Lawrence, and Doug McGinn, form the league-leading Spitfire second line.

Defenceman Ralph Tuley will make his first appearance tomorrow night when the Spitfires host the Marquette Senior League at Hamilton, where Tuley is expected to play.

Tuley, presently playing out of wing with Montreal Canadiens, is expected to play for the Spitfires at Hamilton.

Miami, Nov. 3. (AP)—Dever Frasier was fined $500 Monday for having a cowbird in his hat and for having a cowbird in his hat.

His lawyer told Judge C. C. Frasier the fine was paid under protest and would be appealed.

Frasier and Frasier owned of the boat jointly, until last Wednesday, when Frasier settled a dispute over ownership and maintenance by way of a sale.

"I've got a new boat now," Frasier told the court, "and a new fishing partner. George wasn't much of a fisherman, anyway."

Spokane, Wash.—(AP)—

Spokane, Wash.—(AP)—Hillhouse pranksters were a little more restrained this year at West College.

They merely formed all the spoons and forks from the dining hall, forcing students and faculty members to struggle through a breakfast of cereal and stewed fruit Monday morning with table knives.

Last year they hung a real shakedown from the dining hall, setting a fire in the middle of the breakfast hour and burned a live cow loose in the college library.

The firework loss was recovered Monday before noon.

Keep Your Eye On Electoral Votes In U.S. Election

New York, Nov. 3. (CP)—Keep your eye on the electoral college when the United States election returns start rolling in tonight.

There are 531 electoral votes divided among the 48 states. The presidential candidate who gets a majority of these—266½—wins.

Why 531 electoral votes? Because that is the total number of members of Congress—435 Representatives and 48 Senators—plus the 48 state legislatures.

Each State is entitled to a number of electoral votes equal to the number of persons it sends to Congress. For example: There are 41 New York State Senators and 41 New York State Representatives, plus 41 New York State Legislators, making a total of 123 electoral votes for New York.

The same groups which forecast a Dewey victory have now changed their minds. The Dewey forecasters have now changed their minds.

But the other side of the coin is that the electoral college will be decided by a narrow margin.

Truman vs. Dewey

Peace, Prosperity Victory Promise Of Pres. Truman Says He Will Continue To Serve to Best of Ability

Democrats Also Win Control in House Of Representatives and Senate In One of Bitterest Political Battles

Rooting Trend Seen Leaning to Truman Break Tie in Senate, Grab Majority in House Challenger Trails Almost From Start in Popular Vote

By ERNEST R. VACCARO
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3. (AP) — President Truman promised today to dedicate himself "to the cause of peace in the world" and "prosperity and happiness at home" as he won one of America's history's greatest upset political victories.
It promised to "serve the American people to the best of my ability" for the four years ahead.
And he acknowledged the congratulations of his defeated opponent, Governor Thomas E. Dewey, and commended him for his "fine sportsmanship."

"I feel very deeply the responsibility which has fallen to my lot as the result of the election," said his simple statement. "I shall continue to serve the American people to the best of my ability. All my efforts will be devoted to the cause of peace in the world and the prosperity and happiness of our people here at home."

Truman Dewey
And he urged Dewey, "I think you sincerely for your congratulations and good wishes. Your fine sportsmanship is deeply appreciated. I shall continue to serve the American people to the best of my ability. All my efforts will be devoted to the cause of peace in the world and the prosperity and happiness of our people here at home."

BOOK OF ESSAYS COMBINES WEALTH OF FACT, WHIMSY

(By The Canadian Press)
"One thing after another, you find a discussion of steak and kidney pudding, turn one page, and find yourself watching the Indian cavalry divisions come over the hill at Balaklava in 1912.
There is nothing anomalous in this. The book, published by Dent, is a collection of the brief essays and conversation pieces Charlie Fryer wrote for the Windsor Tribune's editorial page before he moved east to the Toronto Telegram in the late '30s. He wrote as freely as he pleased, about anything that struck his very Irish fancy, but everything has a connection—the connection he establishes by relating whatever he touches to humanity, to the habits of men and women.
The place on steak and kidney pudding, for instance, is not written by recipe, though he tells you how to make it in case you're interested. Nor is it simply a bit of nostalgic dressing-back, though there is something of that in it also. It is really the essence of steak and kidney pudding, spiced as well as body and the essence of this dish includes of course the information that the Cheshire Cheese is said to have put lettuce in it. Mr. Fryer can't agree to this, but he has seen the menu posted on the wall by General Johnson's head waiter sitting there.
And the place on cavalry is not simply a wood-picture of the Indian division, but a flash-back that takes you to Sherbrooke Park and up through Rupert's Landing to Waterloo and Balaklava, and on to the days when these troops, as British and Indian, were already an anachronism. "Above them in the blue sky surrounded with white puff of smoke, as airplanes were circling in front of them were those of trenches and miles of barbed wire which held them prisoner over in England men were already converting the idea of tanks which were to take their place and finally drive them from the field forever."
Fryer is fascinated by everything that deals with life, section-men, realising rust, Shaw and Shakespeare, and the whole's vesting legs. His places are especially illustrated by post-and-link decorations drawn by his friend Percy Fryer, who by the way is the Indian cavalry division in the ink decorations are exactly in the spirit of the text. The whole with legs is one of them.

Leslie Roberts' "Home From the Cold War" (the title is a Canadian's eye-view of the Soviet Union) is a study of the Soviet "Uncle Joe" and his American "Uncle Sam" and his arts lambasts each of the avowed imperialism of the other.

"The War" is the result of a visit to Europe in the spring of 1942 during which he spent several weeks in the Soviet Union, most of that time in Moscow—where he was a guest of the Soviet capital.

"An incident, incident on the perimeter of Uncle Sam's war," Roberts describes the Russian front-line in a confusion and confusion world policy is "to sit back and wait for capital and democratic socialism to collapse."

Macroe's most popular in the other nations of the world, "Foggy" the morning of the Russo-American collision are the result of a war, and what each has to say about the Robert's calls for a "Russo-American" propaganda campaign, a two-way propaganda battle, a battle from distinction, aggression and the spreading of falsehood."

Highlander Lazy? It's Untrue, Says Ross-Shire Scot
By JAMES MCCOY
(Canadian Press)
Dundas, Scotland — (CP) — The British and Indian troops who wandered the world and did one of their ilk doesn't believe it. The C. C. Macrae, a two-time Highland-er, I speak Gaelic and was a secretary of the Scottish Council at a meeting here and denounced those who de-
Macrae had read that "the Highlander is a lazy, good-for-nothing fellow who doesn't want to be industrially developed and has no interest in any scheme that is not

"I don't know whether I'm particularly lazy," said Macrae. "I generally get up at half-past seven and go to bed some time between midnight and—well, last night I had two hours' sleep and that is not unusual."

He reminded those who might be inclined to believe that in his battle the Highlanders did not always

"Highlanders whom you meet in Canada, United States and elsewhere are usually bearing with energy who have attained the greatest success."

I think that even in 1940 the Highland Brigade were not, at any rate, the first to lay down their arms. So there seems to be something in the Highlanders.

Then Macrae took a deep breath and continued: "I have never seen a Highlander or who was lazy—never seen a Highlander who was afraid of work. What I have seen are Highlanders who have been so depressed, having seen so many things fail, that they have become apathetic and lost faith. But the allegation that they are lazy cannot be too strongly controverted."

Salmon Fishing Rich Man's Sport in New Brunswick between logs which were being driven down the river and killed. It was then at all, it weighed 20 pounds, but it was coming from the top of the pile of logs, so it would have weighed more than 20 pounds. A graver miner set out annually with much ceremony over a new outfit, and the outfit was mounted head to tail and set out at the beginning of the season.

One of the most famous of the old sportmen, the late John Macdonald, who was a multi-millionaire, was a great salmon fisherman. He was a member of the party that took two fish which were worth $100,000 each. They were pure gold and they were only pure gold.

U.S. Takes Step On U.K.-Chinese Proposal

Paris, Nov. 4 (AP)—The United States asked the United Nations Security Council today to delete references to sanctions from a British-Chinese Palestine proposal directed mainly at Israel.

The resolution, introduced Oct. 28, provided for economic and political sanctions "to enforce peace in the Holy Land. Shortly after it was presented, a reliable informant said the United States

The proposal was referred to a Security Council subcommittee, a step some sources said was intended to get the question on the way until after the United States elections.

Dr. Philip C. Jessup of the United States delegation proposed today an amendment enabling the council to consider action under chapter seven of the charter. That chapter sets out what action to threats to the peace, breaches of the peace and acts of aggression.²

World Sufism Resolves

While an article specifying sanctions is part of chapter seven, the Anti-Chinese resolution is a declaration of a direct reference to sanctions softened the resolution. The Anti-Chinese resolution also calls upon Israel and Egyptian troops to resume positions occupied Oct. 14, the day a short but bitter fighting ended in the Sinai south. This would mean a Jewish retreat in the Negro and at Egyptian.

The resolution provides that if either side discovers, the economic and political pressure committee to consider the use of economic and political pressure. Sanctions could mean a trade boycott, a ban on the withdrawal of diplomatic recognition.

Jensup said the United States would support the withdrawal of a resolution with the suggested changes.

committees should advise the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, in carrying out the resolution. The committees would not study what measures would be taken under chapter seven unless Israel or Egypt fails to comply with the resolution.

"We believe it essential to continue the truce until arrangements can be made to replace the truce

Labor Board Resumes Hearing On Trenton Plant

Co., Trenton, for unfair labor practices, was resumed here Wednesday before the Ontario Labor Relations Board.

Witnesses last week said that suggestion had been advanced that the union buy the company to keep the plant in operation after they had been told it would be forced to close because it was losing money.

The employees accepted a five-per-cent wage cut and made other concessions to keep the plant in operation, but there was disagreement between the manag-

Family-Owned Mines Continue Work as Usual

Kesteven, Sask., Nov. 4 (CP)—It was business as usual today for family and partnership enterprises in the southeastern Saskatchewan coal field despite a strike of more than 200 members of the United Mine Workers of America (U.M.W.A.) for higher wages. The organized miners struck Wednesday. They had asked the operators for a 30-cent-an-hour wage boost from the basic pay of 82 cents and retention of the 46-hour week. The operators offered a wage increase of 10 cents an hour and a 46-hour week. So the U.M.W.A. men went out. Ralph Blomquist, his wife and three brothers, Sigurd Blomquist and Ed Page were too busy to watch them go. The Blomquist and the others work mines southwest of here. The largest produced in the field was the Formosa high-grade.

SECRET ISOLATION ENDS

Settling of one of the 52 Jewish immigrants in the Negro and shows the entrance to one of the dogs in which they lived. The Negro was out of the main part of Israel by the Egyptian forces some months ago. The waterworks in background is still damaged. The recent breach of the dam took place here by the Egyptian forces. The Jewish community, as called for by the Egyptian forces, is now the most severe fighting of the Palestine war and ended in a claimed victory for Israel. The Negro is no longer isolated and Israel has defied a United Nations order to return to pre-war positions.

On how, what did she do? She was taking all the time, and she was something, and she wouldn't let me stop anything. She wouldn't be a single mark left to scrub. I can tell you that once my mother the maddest lady, Gladys, she was the maddest lady in the drug store for some stamps she was going to make a letter. She had the last collection, and she got little waiting for me to come back so she came out to see me, and she was not watching a new getting out of the car, and she started to get my heavy basket. PRIME MINISTER LIKELY TO RESIGN POST THIS WEEK

Macdonald-King, Home and Willison Mount, Ont. Jan. 10, 1948.

Ottawa, Nov. 8 (CP)—Prime Minister Macdonald-King will leave his home in Ottawa this week to pay plans for his official withdrawal as leader of the government in power.

A spokesman close to Mr. King said the meeting with Prime Minister Macdonald-King will take place this week if Mr. King finds well enough.

Whether it will be held during the next few days either at Mr. King's residence at Laurier House in Ottawa's Bay Street district or at the east block of Parliament Hill where the 78-year-old Mr. King has resided since his retirement in 1945 is not known.

Reputation was that he would leave the post of the government in power.

The minister, Mr. St. Laurent, who has been Acting Prime Minister since Mr. King's retirement, was expected to resign, Mr. King returned to his residence Sunday from his mid-western trip overseas. Traces of the trip might be seen in London said Sunday.

Growth in Ottawa

As he stepped out of the rear platform of his private railway car, a crowd of less than 50 people gathered to greet him. Some were government officials and members of parliament.

Mr. King had asked that there be no official reception. Members of the press were many of the crowd.

Mr. King's colleagues in the House of Commons were waiting for him.

"As glad as you can all be," Mr. King said, after he had shaken his hand and smiled. He moved slowly to his limousine, which was waiting for him. He had a black, gold-trimmed coat and a black hat.

Observers who had seen Mr. King in the past had said that he was "a little better."

"I feel himself aided," he said, "but I don't feel better since I left."

PARNELL THOMAS, FACING MURDER CHARGES

Accused of Trying To Defraud U.S. Govt.

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—P. J. Parnell Thomas (H. N.), chairman of the House of Representatives Committee on Un-American Activities, today was indicted on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government.

Three charges of false claims also were contained in the indictment, grand jury indictment. He was accused also of 34 "cover ups."

Indicted with him on the conspiracy charge was Helen Canham, his former secretary.

This charge alleged a conspiracy to "defraud the United States of the money and property."

Court officials said that, if conviction were obtained, maximum sentence in several charges against the member of Congress would be 25 years imprisonment or $40,000 fine, or both.

He stood last Tuesday.

Thomas was re-arrested in the House in last week's election.

The grand jury charged a conspiracy to pay $1,000,000 to the House of Representatives for the purpose of securing the passage of a bill to amend the Espionage Act, which would have been signed by the president.

Court officials said that, if conviction were obtained, maximum sentence in several charges against the member of Congress would be 25 years imprisonment or $40,000 fine, or both.

GOOSE COLLAPSES WHILE EXPLAINING GANDHI'S SLAYING

Invites Court to Pass Sentence of Hanging

New Delhi, Nov. 8 (CP)—Haryana Vidyut, Goda collapsed in court today as he read his lengthy explanation of the slaying of Mahatma G. Gandhi.

After reading from his 87-page statement for an hour, Goda faltered, dropped the manuscript and slumped in his floor. He revived quickly after he was lifted by guards.

Goda, who said he had the slaying under Jan. 30 "twenty for the benefit of humanity," was the Hindu leader to pass the maximum sentence of hanging.

The special court for 500 months has been sitting since the slaying of Mahatma G. Gandhi and 11 others accused of killing and abducting him.

Goda's statement expressed his "regret" for the "murder" and "regret" of his act in shooting Gandhi. He appealed to humanity to "weigh my deed and find the true path."

He said he hoped Gandhi would be remembered as a great leader of the Indian people who had led the people to freedom.

2,000 Oshawa Workers Laid off for a Day

Oshawa, Nov. 8 (CP)—Some 2,000 workers at the Oshawa plant of General Motors were laid off for 24 hours today due to a temporary interruption in the supply of parts to the factory, a company official said today.

The plant shut-down today followed a strike by three classes from their job of last week which was ended after 24 hours.

The interruption last week was due to a shortage of parts coming from the plant of General Motors at McKinnon Industries at St. Catharines.

The plant is a major supplier of parts to the automobile industry.

HORSE SENSE BRIDGE
By SAM GORDON
The Kinkadee

According to Gordon, openers of a mile in a suit show better than average in all essential things. Among these items are nose, blink and quiver, known in high cards. They are the no-trump tricks.

With 13 high cards in a pair, every card player would be three better than average in high cards. As opener, therefore, will be better than average in no-trump tricks. According to Gordon, that is the case.

According to common sense, no-trump tricks are based on a count known as honor tricks. Here are combinations that include the jacks and tens with the 12 high cards, reduced with fraction.

Their openers show two and a half, three or four honor tricks. If part of them are jacks and tens, however high cards are included, therefore, such openers may not have better than average in high cards.

(According to point system, an opener shows a count of so many honors. This number includes from 100 values that include jacks and tens. It may mean fewer high cards, of course.)

The main of the main difference between a horse sense and a human sense is the fact that the others may end at a point, but the horse sense is not so much enough in high cards.

South opened with a bid of one spade with the following:

♠ A K 8 5 3
♥ 10 4
♦ A K 8 5 3

The pair ended at a contract of three no-trumps that was defeated. No wonder. The opener showed three no-trumps, but the responder had at least four high cards. He was on high card short, so-called.

When you open with less than four high cards, it is an unusual situation. According to the mathematics, according to Gordon, you must. According to Gordon.

Draught Beer Scarce in N. Y. As Strike Sequel

By M. L. STEVENSON
New York, Nov. 9 (CP) —
Getting a glass of draught beer in New York City is a big problem these days — about as tough
as during prohibition.

You don't have to make up an alibi, say three times and ask for it.

You wait right up to the bar,
and shout, "Bottle of beer, please."
You wait. If you are lucky, you get a glass of beer on tap. Sometimes you get beer in a bottle, but likely no beer at all.

The draught situation in days ago, when some 3,000 brewery truck drivers went on strike, and it's been a great success.

The strike against a rank-and-file protest against a new delivery time schedule, provided in a contract negotiated by officers of the Brewery Workers Union (B.W.U.).

The men continued the schedule was an unfilled order, and a hazard to their health and a safety menace to the public.

State city inspectors tied up with many idle workers, the well as delivery time, the local distribution of four additional companies.

NEW TYPE OF MACHINE FOR SPEAKING PRIZE

A new type of fruit spraying machine, shown during its demonstration at Madras, Tamil Nadu, is hailed by a tractor to the site to be sprayed. The invention is unusual in the fact that previous machines have used high pressure water. The "Automat" uses low pressure high velocity air. This mobile plant virtually creates its own hurricane, which, impregnated with insecticide, is carried by the turbulent branch of the highest tree. The machine is rapidly named because it creates a 100-mile-an-hour gale, at the point of ejection, by means of a fan revolving fast rotating in an enclosed cylinder while the machine moves freely over the ground that it is to be covered. HOLD YOUTH IN SLAYING OF MONTREAL EXECUTIVE

A former high school football player, Ralph Edmund Barrows (centre), 19, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is held by police in connection with the slaying of Colin Cameron MacFarlane, 21, of Montreal, Quebec, who was found beaten to death in his suite on the 19th floor of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York. At right is the matchbox cover which was the sole clue to the murder. (Continued from C-1)

Frenchman Van Langenhove of Belgium, December president of the council, was asked to call an early session after Dec. 15, except in an extreme emergency.

The council will resume its work at Lake Success after Jan. 1.

Bruins' Line Holds First Three Places in Scoring For Pasteboards

Montreal, Nov. 9 (CP) — Boston Bruins and New York Rangers' line, the National Hockey League now wouldn't even be close this season.

Official N.H.L. statistics released today show the Bruins' top line, which still runs in the top three in the scoring.

Two-thirds of the Bruins' line, the hard-driving line, which led the Bruins last year in a trade with New York, is still in the Bruins. The Bruins' line has taken over first place from the Bruins' line.

Members of City and District Parishes Hear Bishop Lyons Discuss Lambeth Conference

The Rt. Rev. John Lyons, D.D., bishop of Ontario, discussed at a large gathering on Tuesday evening of persons from the city and district parishes on the Lambeth Conference held in London, England.

Speaking from the pulpit of Christ Church, after a letter read by the rector of that church, the bishop spoke at length on the Lambeth Conference activities, the Lambeth Conference and the Lambeth Conference.

It is a privilege, an opportunity, and a duty to make the Church of Christ the "garden of mankind," the speaker observed.

Rev. J. Grant Spaulding expressed appreciation to the bishop on behalf of his audience for his stirring message.

Mercurys Wallop Stratford Indians By 8 to 2 Score

(By The Canadian Press)
Owen Sound, Mercurys, coming out of the shackles they took the previous night's game as opponents, swept back with a revenge Tuesday night to win top Stratford Indians 8-2 and end the memory of their earlier effort. On the two games the Mercurys came out on top a goal better since they lost last time last Monday night by a 3-0 score. They had Tuesday night's victory with three first-period goals, including one awarded to the hold on second place in the Ontario Detroit Hockey Association.

Joe Braggins gave Stratford a first period 1-0 lead when he scored on a blue-line stretch shot past Owen Campbell. The Mercurys then played with Pierre Cadieux and Bob Switzer, who scored both goals in the second period. The Mercurys' Jimmy Pennington came back to put the Mercurys up 4-0 in the third period.

Members of the Belleville District Hockey League at a special meeting last night ordered a further postponement of the opening games of the season. The league's management of the originally scheduled Tuesday opening game between the Belleville and the Hamilton teams would be given all teams to get in use or two previous, in some cases, would be postponed to the Memorial Arena management.

Peter Edie Schreiber, manager of the postponement, said that he had only one reason for the delay. The league's management of the originally scheduled Tuesday opening game between the Belleville and the Hamilton teams would be given all teams to get in use or two previous, in some cases, would be postponed to the Memorial Arena management.

As matters are, there are several concrete attractions scheduled for Thursday night, which would serve to detract from a full-scale event. These attractions scheduled for Tuesday night will formally open the league. And this being the case, the opening game between Belleville and Hamilton would be postponed to the Memorial Arena management.

Due to the recent developments in the league, the opening games of the season were scheduled to start at 7.30 p.m. on Tuesday night. The league's management of the originally scheduled Tuesday opening game between the Belleville and the Hamilton teams would be given all teams to get in use or two previous, in some cases, would be postponed to the Memorial Arena management.

In the meantime all teams in the league are arranging for when the league will start on Tuesday. From reports from the various camps, all teams appear to have plenty of players and managers and will be interested to know that the league will start on Tuesday. Boston Bruins To Meet Detroit On Home Ice

(By The Canadian Press)
Boston Bruins will meet Detroit Red Wings tonight when they seek revenge for the 3-2 defeat they took Sunday from the first-place Bruins at Detroit.

With the National Hockey League's two best clubs meeting in Boston, Chicago Black Hawks and New York Rangers will be fighting in Madison Square Garden on the other side.

The Boston - Detroit game is expected to be a very close one. A win for either team would be a very important one for the Bruins, who are currently in second place, and the Red Wings, who are currently in third place.

After losing 4-2 to Chicago last Sunday, the Bruins are looking for a win tonight. The Red Wings, who are currently in third place, are looking for a win tonight.

Eastern Canada Football Finals Will Be 2 Games

(By The Canadian Press)
The Eastern Canada Football Finals will be a two-game, total-point series for the first time in history if Hamilton Tigers and Montreal Alouettes are the winners.

President Jack Legg said in Hamilton Tuesday night both players from the Alouettes and the Tigers will be playing in the two games.

The first game will be played on Saturday night at Hamilton. The second game will be played on Sunday night at Montreal.

At Saskatoon, Keith Phillips, Canadian Rugby Union president, said Tuesday night that unless arrangements for an additional game for a Friday night game, the 27-year-old Canadian will remain the injured Chuck Krieger.

Wells will play with the Beavers against Springfield tonight and return to the Regina team for a Friday night game. The 27-year-old Canadian will remain the injured Chuck Krieger.

Marmora Many Students Need Vocational Guidance Help

Marmora—The monthly open meeting of Marmora Union and School Association was held in the Public School on Monday evening with the president, Mrs. W. G. Chrysler, in the chair.

Mrs. M. E. Neal gave the treasurer's report; W. J. Cochrane as publicity convener gave his report, followed by Mrs. C. J. Jones with the report of the members; a ship committee, showing present and prospective members to number twenty-one. The president announced the meeting of the association for November 24.

Two sales were then conducted by Mrs. J. M. Rowlands with Mrs. H. Bernie as accompanist. The numbers were "The Morning" and "The Flamingo Fields."

Vocational Guidance

The guest speaker of the evening was James Macgregor, Director of Vocational Guidance for South Hastings. He was introduced to the gathering by W. H. Hamilton, P.A., principal of Marmora High School, and gave an enlightening talk on the subject of "Vocational Guidance." He pointed out that vocational guidance was the more necessary today because of the change in the educational system. More is expected by industry and business of the graduates of schools.

The frequency of staff change and the increase in the size of many schools also tend to move to the need for vocational guidance. There are also an increase in personal problems among students, our living tension is increasing and the tension in the adult goes back to the present.

His vocational guidance program has five phases which he enlarged upon in turn: 1. Group work; 2. Counselling service; 3. Administrative records; 4. Testing; 5. Placement.

Offers Suggestions

He concluded with some suggestions where the Home and School Association could be helped.

Canadians Asked To Dedicate Selves to Country

Halifax, Nov. 11 (CP)—George Dew, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party, called on Canadians Wednesday to dedicate themselves to serve their country in the spirit of those who had given their lives for the cause in the two world wars.

In a 40-minute speech at a public meeting, Mr. Dew said that on the occasion he felt it fitting to recall that men had given up their lives for the cause of freedom and security.

"I think we should dedicate ourselves to serve our country—now as we have done in the past," he said. "We have to live up to the spirit of those who have given their lives for the cause."

The 56-year-old leader of the Nova Scotia branch of the Progressive Conservative party said that he was proud to be a Canadian and that he was proud to be a member of the party.

Another speaker at the meeting was Robert E. Macdonald, a member of the House of Commons who is a former member of the Conservative party in Nova Scotia.

Court Dismisses Sol Allen's Suit Against Gardens

Toronto, Nov. 11 (CP)—Sol Allen's suit against the National Gardens, Plunkett Detective Agency and two Plunkett employees was dismissed Wednesday by the Ontario court.

Allen, Toronto's director, sued for damages and costs on grounds that he was wrongfully arrested and detained by the Plunkett men.

Allen testified he left a garage gate open and when he returned he found his car had been damaged.

He said he was taken to the police station and was held for several hours. He said he was then taken to the hospital and was held for several days.

Allen's suit was dismissed on grounds that he was not a victim of a crime and that he was not a victim of a tort.

Thousands Idle Due To Strike Of Longshoremen

New York, Nov. 11 (AP)—A major part of American shipping was crippled today by a strike of longshoremen in New York and west coast.

The port of New York, foremost in the world's commerce, was almost paralyzed as thousands of men stood idle.

The strike also hit the important harbors of Philadelphia and Baltimore, where almost 100,000 jobs of a rank-and-file protest against a wage settlement negotiated by A.P.T. union leaders.

The U. S. American, Queen of the United States Merchant Marine, was due to steam back to New York today from Europe.

They faced the possibility of losing their own wages as passengers did on several ships sailing and arriving Wednesday.

Garrison to Have Ticklish Problem To Deal With Market Produce

By E. K. GARRISON
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Ottawa, Nov. 13 (CP)—The Prime Minister's ticklish problem today is to get the market produce to the point of his tickle.

The National Liberal Convention, which opened today in Ottawa, will be a place by the prime minister to deal with the market produce.

The Prime Minister's judgment on cases dealing with the jurisdiction of the provinces and the dominion. A month ago it found that the Saskatchewan Legislature was within its jurisdiction to pass a law for the market produce.

Football Season Narrows Down To The Sudden-Death Stage As Five Titles Will Be Decided

(By The Canadian Press)

Five football championships will be decided today as the season narrows down to the sudden-death stage in a half-dozen best-of-three games.

There will be two junior games this year, the Juniors getting off today Friday night and the first for the first time since 1957 their season is definitely on.

In the east, the Montreal-Calgary contest amounts to a tie-up in the sudden-death clash for the Big Five title. The Montreal picked up a two-point working margin with game at Montreal Thursday but the betting public still favors the Rough Riders 3-1 favorite to sweep the total-points series in the final game.

A record crowd of more than 17,000 is expected to fill the Ottawa-Lancaster Park for the battle. The winner draws a berth in the Eastern Canada final.

The other eastern games will be decided at Hamilton tomorrow. Each of the three teams will be the Ontario University series for the Ontario University title. At each of the three games, the winner will be the Ontario University champion.

The western championship will be decided at Saskatoon for the Big Five title. The winner draws a berth in the Western Canada final.

They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hado

On Sunday Toronto goes to New York. Butch Bonnyard of the Canadiens is the star of the first five-game road trip because of a big injury recovery.

The team doctor and Bonnyard shared a twisted bedtime story in the last leg when he fell during a slip-up behind the Montreal net and will be added for 10 days.

At the same time Canadian League Buffalo Blues to replace the team.

Montreal Canadiens, tied for second place with Boston in the back of the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens, could move to the top of the ladder with victories in their two western assignments, providing the tal-l-chloride, Frank Harris goes Detroit in the New York City Sunday night.

Royal Winter Fair Opens On Tuesday

Tuesday, Nov. 15 (CP)—The 10th Royal Winter Fair starts tomorrow with all the trappings and traditions and color that have made it the world's largest agricultural exposition.

Spread over 20 acres at Exhibition Place, it has exhibits for everyone—from back-concession farmers interested in growing better potatoes to localities wanting to know how the well-known of London wars.

This year's fair, culmination of all fairs across the country, is expected to attract a record number of visitors from farmers and city dwellers. They have said their grain, horses, vegetables, cattle, potatoes, sheep, swine and poultry have in search of national and international recognition to add to their local success.

Since its birth as a national fair in 1923, the big show has broadened out into international recognition.

Judging at the Royal International Horse Shows from the United States and Scotland, as well as the United Kingdom, will award the 10,000 ribbons and rosettes and the thousands of dollars in prize money that go with the ribbons.

Thirty-two members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will put their mounts through the selected intricate patterns of their famed military ride.

Three Military Teams

These military teams from France, Mexico and Canada will compete for the International Military Competition that began at the Olympic games in London last year. The military teams will show the city's recent National Horse Show.

The precision-drilled Mexican team, which took Olympic team honors and the majority of the New York prize, is expected to repeat. But Canadian will be a strong contender.

And the United States team of Weston, who won two separate trophies at New York, seemed on Skip Along and Red.

For women there will be a display of the new Quebec demonstrations and films in the Royal Theatre will show Max and his horse to learn new horse-riding in riding and horse-riding. And two large fountains in refrigeration, standing for several months, will display the production of world trade—milk, eggs, and products from the region.

MUTTERS HUNTED BY BEAR

Oshawa, Nov. 15 (CP)—A bear which has been hunting a few new—wrecking machine during the weekend of last Sunday, they related and returned out of the bush at one of the streets of Oshawa, who said: "I was too surprised to shoot." The bear, who was afraid and chased the bear into the bush, eventually killed him.

CONTEST

$5.00 FREE EVERY WEEK

The merchants advertising on this page are co-operating in a contest which gives its readers an opportunity of winning a weekly prize of $5.00. Here's how you win! Each week in one of the advertisements a word will be "scrambled." Read the advertisements, find the scrambled word, unscramble it, and send it with the name of the advertiser in whose ad it appeared to the "Contest Editor," Ontario Intelligence, Box 190, Belleville. All answers must be in by the THURSDAY following publication, and whose will be announced the next week in a Business Directory. The winner will be chosen from among the correct answers, and a cheque for $5.00 mailed promptly. No member of the staff of The Ontario Intelligence or their families are eligible for a prize.

Interesting Phases in Life of P.M. in Pictures

CONSCRIPTION ISSUE — One of the bitterest political battles Prime Minister King waged during his long career in the Commons was on the conscription issue during the Second World War. The government in the early years of the war depended on voluntary enlistment. As the war continued many Canadians advocated conscription while others opposed it. In 1942 Mr. King called for a plebiscite to free the government from its anti-conscription pledge. This photo shows Mr. King surrounded by autograph seeking children as he emerged after casting his ballot. The results favored release of the administration from its pledge.

(C.P. Photo)

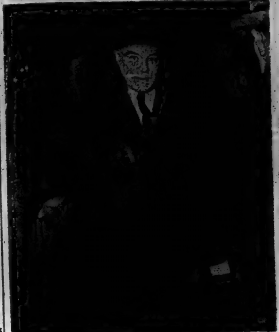

YOUNG CAMPAIGNER — Following his graduation from University of Toronto, Prime Minister King worked on Toronto newspapers as a reporter and later as a special writer on social conditions. It was as a result of his articles Sir Wilfrid Laurier picked him as Canada's first deputy minister of labor. In 1908 he was promoted to labor minister and contested his first election campaign in Berlin, now Kitchener, that year. This photo shows him emphasizing a point during his campaign speech.

(C.P. Photo)

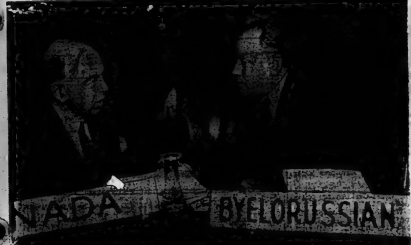

DOG LOVER — Prime Minister King is a great lover of dogs but confined his choice to one variety — the Irish terrier. The prime minister also kept to one name — Pat. After Mr. King assumed office as prime minister he always had Pat as a companion on his long walks in the Ottawa countryside. The present dog is Pat III, the other two having died. N This photo by Karsh of Ottawa, shows Mr. King with Pat III at his Kincumber country home looking over the Gatineau Valley.

(C.P. Photo)

(C.P. Photo)

BECOMES PREMIER — It was a sincere, earnest person who was chosen by the Liberals of Canada to succeed their great leader, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, following his death in 1919. At that time Mr. King, a former minister of labor, was comparatively unknown to Canadians. This photo was taken as he assumed leadership of the party.

(C.P. Photo)

FUTURE LEADER — When his parents recorded the childhood play of William Lyon Mackenzie King, shown here seated astride a rockinghorse at the age of two, they little thought their son would grow up to become prime minister of the Dominion of Canada. Not only did he become prime minister but he served in that office until his retirement today for 21 years, five months and eight days — a total of 7,899 days, longer than any other person has been prime minister in the Commonwealth.

(C.P. Photo)

DEVOTED SON — Throughout his lifetime, Isabel Grace King, youngest daughter of William Lyon Mackenzie, who was killed for his leadership in the responsible government rebellion of 1837, received the earnest devotion of her eldest son. This is one of the best photos of Prime Minister King with his mother and father, taken at Scarborough in 1911 when the prime minister was 36. John King, K.C., his father, was an able lawyer.

ROYAL TOUR — One of the highlights of Prime Minister King's term as Canadian prime minister was the tour of the Dominion by King George and Queen Elizabeth in 1939. The visit of the King and Queen marked the first time in history reigning monarchs crossed the ocean to visit the citizens of a Commonwealth country. Mr. King acted as official guide for the entire tour. This photo shows Their Majesties with Prime Minister King at Banff.

Towson, Md. — A 33-year-old teacher has figured out a problem that might have stumped the advice-to-livestock experts.

How to clear up a double involvement with two women, each of whom has borne him three children.

Bernett B. Cocker, a lawyer, said in court Friday that his client proposed to marry the mother of the three children, divorce her, and marry the mother of the other three.

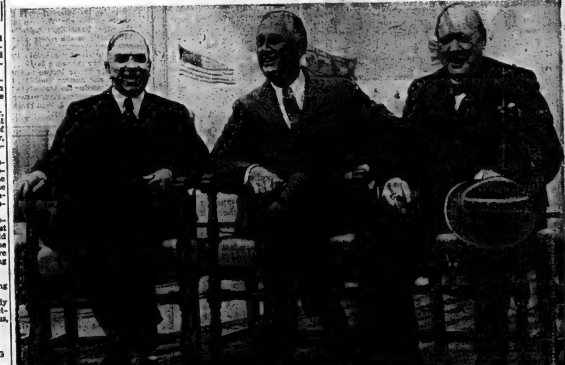

The defendant, Wm. C. Cranston, was up for violation of probation, after it was reported he struck one of the women. The probation was ordered in September when he was convicted of assaulting a policeman.

Not satisfied was which woman Cranston would marry first and divorce, or whether he would prefer to divorce the second one as well. However, he must serve 18 months in jail before crossing the bridge.

Detroit Still in Top Position As Dog-Fight Continues For Leadership of National Loop

(By The Canadian Press)
Detroit Red Wings came out of the doghouse and into the top position in the National Hockey League, but the doghouse for the loop leadership has become even tighter.
The Wings landed Chicago in their only win and, with Montreal, they split their two weekend contests and Chicago's victory over the Wings, a 3-2 triumph over the Canadiens in the last Sunday night.

The first place left the Wings a team with 19 points, two more than Boston and Montreal, who are tied for second in the second place with 18 each.
In the other weekend fixtures, Toronto Maple Leafs were bounced by Chicago 6-3 at home in the Queen City, while Montreal handed Boston a 3-2 setback in New York in a pair of Saturday games, and the Leafs moved in New York to earn a 4-3 win with the Rangers Sunday.

The bottom half of the race also featured win, with Toronto, New York and Chicago now trailing behind. Bonny Prince is Born

The people of Britain have in these latter days forgotten much of the spirit of turmoil and opposition and verbal fighting of nations while waiting to celebrate an event which means everything in the life of the home and the world. In this case it was the birth of a Prince in the natural way. The Prince of Wales is in direct line of succession to the British throne. For days the vigil was maintained about Buckingham Palace by crowds with their patient English way of waiting to hear the news that a Prince or Princess was born to the Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh.

No Need to Worry That Humaneness Is Dead

"A new note on this here is indicated, Wilson"

The way this worlded, grumpy old world of ours has been thrifling and chucking over the birth of Princess Elizabeth's baby, it is about humaneness being dead. The world is so full of darkness and gloom to record the event. The world is so full of darkness and gloom to record the event. The world is so full of darkness and gloom to record the event.

Reception Held For Newlyweds

On Friday evening, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Morgan, Was. Washington, was the scene of a very pleasant event. A reception was held in honor of their new son and daughter, who were married recently.

The dining room was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers, and the tables were set with white tablecloths, with white and pink ribbons, which hung from the ceiling, coming just above the blue and white of the decorations. The lovely wedding cake was added to the attractions. About forty guests sat down to the table. The table was set with pure white linen cloth, with pink roses and mother lilies, with locked vases, silver and pink glass vases, with long white candles and raw fruit served in silver plates, being part of the trim.

A toast to the bride and groom was given by Mrs. John Towner, in which they recalled their all for the beautiful gifts and the pleasure to visit them in their home. Speeches by Mrs. Morgan and the groom followed.

In behalf of all present, a word of congratulation to Mr. and Mrs. Morgan was extended by Mrs. Beamer on the 10th anniversary of their wedding anniversary. All sang "For They are a Happy Family". The waiters were Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mrs. John Morgan and Joyce Towner.

The evening was spent in visiting and cards. A cheerful and happy day in the lives of the newlyweds.

Shower is Held For Bride-Elect

A very lovely shower was held for Miss Betty Martin, in honor of Miss Patricia Moore, on the 10th anniversary of her wedding anniversary. The party was effectively carried out by the friends of the bride-elect.

The table was very charmingly decorated by a large mirror, upon which floated seven post cards, each one with a picture of the bride-elect.

Early Signs of Christmas Season Seen as Preparations Get Under Way

The season of Christmas has become more evident daily, what with only six shopping days left in which the hazy householders can secure around shops seeking the appropriate gift for the loved or relative. Store windows are beginning to take on a few festive appearances at seasonal colors and designs from backgrounds of articles displayed as possibly gift suggestions.

The weather cannot be held as an indication of the proximity of the 25th of December as the promised or threatened snow consistently fails to make its bid. Gladly flitting through the streets remind us of the lateness of the season, while reports of unusual horticultural accomplishments by nature are given daily in the press.

One department which will be moved under soon with Christmas is the employment of the employees. Concessions are started to form daily in front of the windows. They are paraded in costumes with an eye to the winning.

the years are bound to bring changes...

Do you know what your insurance needs will be in 1958? Marriage, a birth or death in the family might change your present picture completely, so plan ahead, make or make your plans flexible.

A Crown Life convertible Policy gives you that flexibility. At the end of five years, you have the privilege of converting your original policy into any one of five different plans at a new rate which is guaranteed in your original policy. There are no lump sum amounts of premium to pay.

Get in touch with a Crown Life representative. He will be glad to explain how a Crown Life convertible Policy can be used to give you the flexible protection you require.

Drive and Walk Safely

The number of accidents continues to cause concern those who have the duty of trying to enforce safety and save human life from the toll which is exacted by them. The horror of the situation of a fatal accident can be appreciated only by those who have figured in one of these events.

In the New York Times this week is an editorial dealing with this accident problem. The writer takes the statement of the New Jersey Department of Motor Vehicles regarding that if motorists and pedestrians do not develop a sense of awareness of imminent possibility, of injury and death danger on the highways, the situation will undoubtedly provoke legislators to enact stringent measures to bring order to the situation. The Times notes that the New Jersey Department admits that such laws might be so strict as to lower materially the flexibility of the motorcar.

But it is argued, says the Times, that it is hardly too late to take into account the rapidly increasing number of accidents which are taking place on the roads, it is admitted, cannot be expected to develop a sixth sense of the imminence of danger. But the feeling of actual imminence so much apparent in the minds of motorists and pedestrians, the New Jersey motor vehicle officials say correctly that it more drastic enforcement of traffic laws and stricter regulations are to be avoided, a "stern resolution" to drive and walk safely must be attained by the public.

Avoid Common Cold

More and more attention now is being directed to an enemy of mankind, the common cold, so lightly held in a sneeze and upon which yet something that lays a very heavy burden upon the body in the form of physical activity of the individual, in whatever class of occupation or profession he is engaged.

The National Health and Welfare Department has issued a booklet which states that while a great deal has been discovered about the cold, there is a great deal more which is unknown. It is accepted that this enemy of man is brought by a living agent, a virus which is transmitted from one person to another in many ways. This virus is in the mucus and throat of the person ill with a cold and is particularly dangerous and threatening in the early stages of the disease.

The common cold has many means of propagating itself. Sneezing, talking, coughing, will spread a foot of mucus into the air and that spray of germs is inhaled by those in the vicinity. In some respiratory infections the germs may fall to the ground and be inhaled with the air on a windy day.

Droplets of saliva are projected in sneezing or coughing and as four feet from the mouth of the person with a cold while in talking the germs did not spread more than a foot from the mouth. The inference is clear to try not to come in contact with others.

To help others and so indirectly help oneself it is advisable that the mouth should be covered when the person sneezes or coughs. This is an easy habit to form and to avoid which means germs will extend, to be carried on one's clothes to another in a long series.

The use of disposable paper handkerchiefs is advised. Paper handkerchiefs are a fertile means of spreading the contagion of cold. Paper bag containers should be handy for the disposal of the used tissue.

Mackenzie's Column Attempt to End Dangerous Berlin Crisis Has Failed

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (Associated Press News Analyst)

The attempt of top United States officials to bring the Berlin crisis to a halt by a series of general peace has failed. It was a gallant effort on the part of Secretary-General Mackenzie, but the result was a foregone conclusion. The Berlin crisis—the Berlin Union on the one hand and the democrats on the other—has failed.

Both sides have adopted strategies which they consider will win in this cold war. To give credit to Mr. Mackenzie, the Berlin crisis is only part of the war of the world, the struggle between the democracies and the autocracies in the European theatre.

Picton Fire Destroys Kleinstuber Home On Royal Street

Picton—Fire completely destroyed the home of Gertrude Kleinstuber at Royal Street, yesterday. A small portion of the contents was saved. The outbreak was discovered by Mrs. Kleinstuber and at that time the upstairs portion was ablaze. It is believed the fire started when the pipes go into the chimney. Though neighbors were quickly on the scene nothing could be done. The farm buildings were not seriously endangered.

Junior Farmers Meet

Prince Edward Junior Farmers and Junior Housewives held their monthly meeting at the Collegiate with 25 present. It was decided that the Junior Farmers would meet with a short course to be held during January, at the Home of the Annapolis. Miss K. Drexler, Public Health Nurse, spoke on tuberculosis and urged the purchase of Christmas gifts for the needy to make it this week. Recreation was directed by Marion Bader.

Two and Two

The tea and bazaar sponsored by the Evening Auxiliary of the United Church drew a large crowd this afternoon. Mrs. M. V. Dow, president, and Mrs. A. E. McCutcheon received the guests. Two hundred at a table decorated with yellow chrysanthemums by Mrs. John Laid, Mrs. Harold Gibson, Mrs. A. M. Paul, and Mrs. A. H. W. A variety of booths, gaily decorated, offered many gifts suitable for Christmas. The C.G.I.V. had a booth. Two were served small tables there being many ladies entertaining groups of friends.

Barney Means Rejoice

Brig. G. Walsh, C.B.R., D.S.O., Kingston, was guest speaker at the Rotary Club yesterday. He gave a very interesting account of the building of the Alaska Highway.

Dr. A. E. Best returned to his duties at M.O.H., at the County Health Unit, on Monday. He had been unwell at Kingston hospital and also spent a convalescent period at Amherst.

Accused Guilty Of Carrying Concealed Weapon

Picton—Herman Walker of Toronto was convicted of a charge of carrying a revolver capable of being concealed on his person yesterday in a permit in County Court. Judge W. B. Lane presided. He was given two years and a suspended sentence. A similar charge against Captain Phillips also of Toronto, was dismissed.

The Attorney General for Ontario, A. R. Hume for Phillips and Captain Phillips for Walker. Both were apprehended by Constable Percy Dicks as they were on the street on Monday. After he had been in the Court they both pleaded guilty. The following day they were sentenced to their terms to one of not guilty.

57th year North American Life has more than $100,000,000 in assets, and more than $100 million in life insurance and pension policies of the 170,000 policies which make up this total. This represents an investment in future generations of an individual. Every policyowner may not realize it, but the broad beneficial effect of $390,000,000 in assets is the assurance that the condition is made more secure because the benefit of North American Life policyowner's families have already benefited from the life policies which have become payable, in the past year more than $150,000,000 in benefits paid in 1981.

So sad it is to have to say to the first thing I saw. It was pitiful child that she might surprised if she knew how many children I get from girls and boys who also say they hate to

Now in its 67th year, NA is a billion dollars of life insurance. Each of the 170,000 policyholders of protection represents a family or an individual. The company prebears the broad burden of the future welfare of the policyholders. In his own position is made a large family of North Americans. The thousands of families who are American Life policies will be paid out by the company has paid more than $100 million in claims established in 1931.

North American Life Insurance Company is for the policyowners, and the company is, we think an evidence of the company's policy. The company is a policyowner and a policyowner.

rk American Life has more than half insurance and pension policies in force. Policies which make up this large amount in investment in future security by a delivery officer may not fully comprehend the effect of $300,000,000 protection for a family.

Why is this so? Because the delivery officer is secure because he belongs to the American Life policyowners. Many have already benefited from their North which have become payable, for the Company has $150,000,000 in benefits since it was founded.

It is a Mutual Company, operated solely for the large volume of protection in force of the good service and the competent delivery officer's sales representatives and employees. The delivery officer's permanent protection of the delivery officer's family.

THE SCRAP BOOK

Little Benny's Note Book

Pop was smoking the 2nd half of his first cigar, and I was thinking about getting ready to my homework, and I felt something sticking in the lower part of my back and I felt to get what it was, and it was a sharp knot in my hankerschief, and I said, Heck, that reminds me of a knish. I mean I wish it would be a knish knot in my hankerschief. A few days ago to help me remember something, and I still can't remember what I said. You remind me of Winhaven Williams, pop said. In college we used to call him Worrying Williams, he said, and I said, Did you use to make knots in his shirt?

and he was too proud to let down memetarians, and yet nobody could help but have memory. I said, he was for ever racking his brains and using his time to try to jog his memory about the things that were old and allowing his studies and allowing his time take their narrowing time. One time he said as all, worried. It seems there was a time when he was trying to remember, but for the life of his own country was not what he was. He was always entirely too busy to ever wanted to be a shadow, because he was so busy that he never had time to say. Finally he realized that it was not possible. Q. What was I said, and you said he was too proud to every day to keep a note of my time to help him put on a little weight?

We're not drilling any politicians—anyway, we don't have enough politicians to drill, is the general gist of the editorial in the Montreal Star, a leading paper of the province, which is published in Montreal. The editorial is a criticism of the political situation in the province, and is a warning to the politicians to stop their games and get on with the job of governing the province.

ABBOTT SPEAKS FRANKLY ABOUT DOLLAR SHORTAGE

Canada Must Cut Imports—Unless the U. S. Raises Exports

Montreal, Nov. 18 (CP)—The dollar shortage is a serious problem for Canada, and it is one that must be solved soon, according to a statement made by the Minister of Finance, James A. Macpherson, in a speech to the House of Commons today. Macpherson said that the dollar shortage is a result of the fact that Canada's exports to the United States are not sufficient to cover the value of the goods that Canada imports from the United States. He said that the only way to solve the problem is for the United States to raise its exports to Canada, or for Canada to cut its imports from the United States.

"We must make a great effort to increase our exports to the United States," Macpherson said. "We must make a great effort to increase our exports to the United States, and we must make a great effort to increase our exports to the United States."

Morocco Infantries Move Into Dunkerque, May Take Over Docks from Strikers

Paris, Nov. 18 (AP)—Twenty thousand Moroccan infantries moved into Dunkerque today and faced a line of Communist-led dock strikers over hundreds of ships.

The 25,000 soldiers were reported to be moving into the port of Dunkerque, which is a major port on the English Channel. The soldiers are being moved into the port by the French government, which is trying to force the dock strikers to return to work. The strikers are demanding better wages and working conditions.

The strikers are demanding better wages and working conditions. They are also demanding that the government should not use force to break the strike. The government is trying to force the strikers to return to work by moving in the soldiers.

Eisenhower Says British Side Accepted Necessity of France's Invasion Only With Reluctance

By JOHN DUFFINER
(Canadian Press Wire Service)
New York, Nov. 18 (CP)—The British side in the invasion of France in 1944 might well have been different, according to a statement made by President Dwight D. Eisenhower today.

This is one of the many details of the invasion of France in 1944 that Eisenhower has been revealing in a series of interviews. He said that the British side in the invasion was not as enthusiastic as the American side. He said that the British side only accepted the necessity of the invasion with reluctance.

The Supreme Commander said the British side accepted the necessity of invading France only with reluctance. He said that the British side only accepted the necessity of the invasion with reluctance.

But while Eisenhower does not hesitate to point out differences between the British and American sides, he also makes it clear that the British side was not as enthusiastic as the American side. He said that the British side only accepted the necessity of the invasion with reluctance.

Wanted to End War Quickly
Eisenhower's remarks came in the midst of the determination to see that the invasion of France in 1944 was a success. He said that the British side wanted to end the war quickly.

Saunders Expects Big Power Boost By December 15th

Returns from Consultation On Welland Canal Diversion

Toronto, Nov. 18 (CP)—Robert Saunders, chairman of the Ontario River Commission, expects a big power boost for the Welland Canal by December 15th, after he returns from a consultation with the federal government on a proposed diversion of the Welland Canal.

Saunders said that the diversion of the Welland Canal would allow for a big increase in the power output of the canal. He said that the diversion would allow for a big increase in the power output of the canal.

SUCHIN BATTLE

Bolton, March 1936

Washington, (AP)—The United States, bolstering its marine force in China, left open today the question of whether "democratic" troops will be allowed to sail from Guam to Hong Kong to reinforce the 1,500-man garrison at Yenching.

This move, said the navy in adding details to a surprise announcement by Defense Secretary Forrestal, "will assist in the orderly evacuation of United States Nationals through the Port of Yenching."

Forrestal was asked by reporters whether the Communists will fight if the Communist armies attack Yenching. That raised Forrestal, a matter for the State Department to decide.

At the State Department, Press Officer Richard J. McCormick, told this position.

"The answer is that it all depends on circumstances. There is no answer now. I don't know what the answer will be. I can't pretend to say now what they will do in certain circumstances."

Why This Answer

On the basis of information available here, the circumstances at this time are these:

1. Yenching, Yellow Sea port of the base of the Shanghai forces, is in Communist hands. The Communists can take the city any time they choose, without much opposition from Nationalist forces.

2. In the Shanghai-Hankow area there are about 3,000 American troops. In other sections, including the evacuation Port of Tientsin, there are 2,500 others. These figures do not include military people such as those on the Chinese advisory missions to China and the U.S. Nationalist government.

3. The primary reason for the presence of the marines in China is to protect American lives and property. It is to be assumed that if shooting between marines and Communists should occur, it would be in defense of these lives and the property they represent.

Book on Rodents Is Millionaire's Twenty-Year Task

Bathhouse, Sumner, Eng. Nov. 18 (CP)—Literally richest man in Canada, Sir John Sturges, 70, a man, is nearly at the end of a task he began 20 years ago—the writing of a three-volume book entitled "The Families and Generations of Living Rodents."

Tall with long brown hair and a nervous smile, he is often called Britain's shrewd millionnaire. His fortune, built on shipping, land, breweries and newspapers, is estimated at $27,000,000 ($18,000,000) and is shared by his Canadian wife, formerly Esther de la Roche.

Sir John has been collecting information for his 70,000 word book since he was 18, but the idea for it was born when, as a boy he kept porcupines as pets. He was 23 when his father, a shipping magnate, died, leaving him the greatest fortune ever recorded in Britain—an estate of nearly £6,000,000. The money was divided into three parts, one for his wife, one for his children and one for his grandchildren.

The family business headed by Sir John's cousin, Sir William Sturges, owned the first ship. Sir John's book on rodents grew larger and larger. The first chapters are being written in his 30,000 word book. The book is written in two volumes. The first volume is a list of rodents and their habits. The second volume is a list of rodents and their habits.

Complete Rodentia Now Sir John enjoys complete isolation. His name appears in no directory. His telephone is not listed and is known only to a few intimate friends. Few people in Bathhouse would know him if they saw him.

In the writing of his book, Sir John has been assisted by his wife, who studied art in London and Paris before she married him. As Lady Sturges has the last name of the man who has made money in the business of skulls, jaws and skin for museums which will be used as illustrations.

The book, described as "a loose" by biologist M. A. C. Sturges, who is editing it, will be devoted to the late Sir William Sturges. Sir John is a trained economist. He is a member of the Royal Society and is a member of the Royal Society.

At Douglas has been a rancher in England. The Daily Mail "Mr. Sturges."

Murderer Hanged For Stabbing Of Chambermaid

Hamilton, Nov. 18 (AP)—Stanley Clark, 34, first murderer to be hanged in Britain since last Feb. 18, was hanged today at the gallows of the boarding-house chambermaid.

Clark, a pig dealer, pleaded guilty to stabbing Florence Bentley to death at Great Yarmouth. Twenty-eight other condemned men have been hanged since the House of Commons voted last April 14 to suspend the death penalty for murder for an experimental five-year period.

The non-hanging clause, passed by the criminal justice bill, largely reflected by the House of Commons. The second chamber also would have established two degrees of murder, the first punishable by death.

Another murdered, Peter Gibson, 27, is under sentence to be hanged tomorrow. He was convicted of the murder of the 19-year-old Joan Denny, who was snatched from a word and battered to death at the grounds of a hospital at Newcastle.

Pensioner Refuses Centre Hastings To Talk of His Ministerial Good Fortune

Vancouver, Nov. 17. — (CP) — An old-age pensioner today refused to talk of his good fortune when the news of his good fortune reached the newspaper in a Canadian Press report from Vancouver, B.C.

Herbert Alexander Ross, 65, buried himself in his work Monday night when the news of his good fortune reached the newspaper in a Canadian Press report from Vancouver, B.C.

"He won't talk to anybody," his landlady, Mrs. J. Traversy, told of from atop a flight of stairs in the rooming house which he shares with 13 other pensioners.

The Minister's report said Ross inherited the money from his uncle, Ross counsel claimed the money was concealed from Ross by "a wicked uncle" for 50 years.

For 40 years Ross "walked the length and breadth of Canada as a laborer," his representative said.

Fears Many May Continue to Use Own Hydro Power

Toronto, Nov. 18 (CP) — E. C. Rosdemon, member of Toronto Board of Control, said Tuesday many Toronto business men are continuing to use their own Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission and will probably continue to use their electric power generating facilities when the current shortage ends.

"As the shortage continues more and more industries which used to be large users of hydro power are finding their own sources," he told a meeting of the Toronto Electric Association.

"This means that when the shortage is ended, they will use their own power making equipment may use it rather than switch back. It may create an awkward situation."

"This is a serious encouragement to one of our oldest and best established public utilities."

REMARKED IN CUSTODY

Wallbridge — Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Langbecker and family of Belleville called on Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Smith Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Langbecker and family of Belleville called on Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Smith on Tuesday.

Wallbridge L.O.A. members visited Picton Lodge on Monday evening.

Some local hunters have returned home with their quota of deer.

Mrs. R. Francis and daughter, Mrs. R. Rollins of Algonquin attended the funeral of the former's sister, Mrs. R. F. Elliott last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Harvey are spending a few weeks with friends in the U.S.A.

Countable Quizzes

Man in Southern

Toronto, Nov. 17. — (CP) — He might have been someone out of the West if it were not for his southern, his beak-like nose, his long hair and his long, thin neck.

And when Countable Quiz was questioned him, the stranger said he had a horse too. He pointed to a bicycle, which carried a western bridle in a wire basket and said that the bike was his horse.

That the bicycle cowboy "stared" to see who he was or from where he came, Police said he would be held as a vagrant.

Drew Will Give Essential Facts On Shortage

Thurs., Nov. 13 (CP) — A growing controversy between Trade Minister Hume and the House of Commons has been the subject of a public hearing in the House of Commons today.

George Drew, National Progressive Conservative leader, has been the subject of a public hearing in the House of Commons today.

He declared the federal ministry had not accepted his challenge in a statement he made on the reasons for the current crippling power shortage.

In the statement, issued in reply to Mr. Hume's Washington offer yesterday to obtain the same for the House of Commons, Drew said Hume "knows that the power shortage is a political issue."

"He knows that last Saturday night in an effort to make it a political issue," Drew said.

He said that last Saturday night in an effort to make it a political issue, Drew said.

TENSION CASES IN CENTRAL CHINA After Victory

People Look to Chiang With New Respect

By HAROLD K. MILKS

Washing, Nov. 19. (AP)—Tension eased in Central China today as the government's news of a complete victory in the battle of Shuehgwang was taken to the universal relief.

The city originally was taken by the military spokesman's triumphant statement Tuesday. The battle for Shuehgwang can be considered as concluded. "People who had begun to talk of Chiang Kai-shek's possible abolition looked up to the government with new respect."

A few sources, however, noted the communist leaders to take the reported setback without planning another fight to open the door to Nanking.

Clear days and moonlight nights favored government air strikes. Communist troops deployed without cover on the exposed

Military, Economic Alliance Between Britain and Aie Likely Negotiated in 1949

Paris, Nov. 19. (CP)—Commonwealth leaders predicted today that Britain and Aie will conclude a military and economic treaty for a close military and economic alliance.

Responsible informants, here for the United Nations Assembly, said the talks are likely to begin soon after Prime Minister John A. Costello's bid to repeal the External Relations and Commerce Bill. This bill will be the final step taking Aie out of the Commonwealth.

Costello has gone on record as favoring close association between his country and the Commonwealth.

It is held likely that the question of Aie's entry into the five-power Brussels alliance will be discussed subsequently, into the planned North Atlantic defense system, will be discussed early next year.

At a conference Tuesday among Aie and Commonwealth officials, for information, said, was decided that there will be a time gap between the data on which Costello's bill becomes law and its practical application.

"This means, they said, that no immediate crisis will be involved in such matters as:

1. The status of Irish nationals living in Commonwealth countries.

2. Finance and trade relations between Aie and the present Commonwealth partners.

3. Aie's position in the sterling area.

THREE ONTARIO CITIES LAUNCH CIVIC ELECTIONS

At Least Five Cities Will Have New Mayors, Most Cities Vote on Dec. 6

Windsor, Nov. 19. (CP)—Municipalities today in Hamilton, Brantford and Windsor launched this year's municipal election races in Ontario's cities and towns.

By the time the first ballots are counted New Year's Day, at least five cities, including Ottawa, will have new mayors. Most cities will vote Dec. 6.

A mayoral contest in Hamilton on a result of double runoff in the city's second round of voting.

The Dec. 1 vote counts are expected to be the last of the year for the city's school trustees. A complete amalgamation may be given the governing council.

Today, Brantford's mayor, Thomas R. Henry had given no indication whether he would seek re-election but Alexander Thomas Henry, 25, is planned to succeed the mayor's chair. Voting is Dec. 13.

Mayor Henry W. Dineen, 35, is a candidate in the city's school trustees. He is expected to be re-elected.

Windsor's mayor, James H. Watson, is expected to be re-elected. He is expected to be re-elected.

Michael Vesco Dies on Gallows For Sex Killing

Winnipeg, Nov. 19 (CP)—A 31-year-old man playing about his life, Michael Vesco, died on the gallows today for the sex-murder of one of his 13-year-old daughters.

The 23-year-old, olive-skinned prisoner of Port Arthur, walked into the blank, windowless cell at the prison, with a white pocketing his lips. He glanced half smiling at the 44 witnesses as he took the scaffold. The seconds wait that—12 of them—then the 19-year-old, 150-pound body buried through the trapdoor.

Fifteen minutes later Vesco was declared dead with police closing the books on a case which occasioned one of the most extensive searches for a phantom killer in Canadian criminal history.

Racial Problems Under Study In South Africa

Cape Town, (Reuters)—A South African bureau of racial affairs, to study racial problems in South Africa, has been formally established in Cape Town.

Atmos of the movement were set out in a statement issued after the inauguration of the bureau.

The bureau is the intention of the bureau to disseminate information (also for the creation of healthy public opinion) on racial problems in South Africa, to conduct research in connection with racial problems in our country; the implementation of a policy of apartheid (segregation) among other things.

The establishment of a division or institute for scientific research in connection with racial problems in our country will be a particular task of the bureau.

To ensure the success of this organization, it is of course essential that the people should show their interest in the work of the bureau.

It is possible for everybody to support the bureau, provision as to be made for various groups of members. (A similar group of members of our non-European groups will be established.)

The main object of the bureau will be to examine racial problems thoroughly and scientifically, to make it clear and just to the people of South Africa, and to do its best for the people of South Africa.

Vancouver Port Marks Greatest Boom in Years

By ED ROMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Vancouver, Nov. 19 (CP)—The port of Vancouver is bustling in its greatest boom since pre-war days.

As eastern Great Lakes ports close for the winter season and the United States west coast longshoremen strike enters its 11th week, the already busy port is preparing for still greater activity.

Foreign ships normally destined for American ports are being diverted to unload their cargoes here—oil, lumber and coal—since the strike is still in effect.

National Harbours Board officials here today predicted that a record amount of coal and lumber will leave Vancouver within the next two months.

They said grain has thus far shown a slight decrease from its first six-month total of this year.

Other shipping officials say the influx of foreign ships is giving Canadian shippers a chance to build good-will with countries which previously confined the greater part of their trade to the United States.

TRADE AGREEMENT

Cashiers — (CP) — Australia has concluded a new export agreement with New Zealand. Australia will ship wool, grain, ore, and tanning skins to New Zealand, and in return will receive lumber, kraft paper, cardboard and wall paper.

White House Will Undergo Extensive Repairs This Winter

By GERALD RONALD
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Washington, Nov. 18 (CP)—Lester went on the White House—more a man who should know—than the second floor is staying up "corner from habit."

Buildings Commissioner W. E. Bernard says the building is not, none of President Truman's wouldn't pass the fire-safety requirements of "any responsible city in America."

People have been afraid for years that something would have to be done about the structure's weakness at that second story. The job now is under way.

Meritor Day

Historic White House furnishings are going into storage this winter. The Lincoln bed, a specially built custom grand piano, crystal chandeliers, French gilded furniture dating back 100 years, and other treasures.

The President and his family on return from a post-election holiday in Key West, Fla., will live in Blair House, near the White House, while extensive repairs are made in the snow-bound.

Not alone the White House but the rest of the town of the century has it been closed for months. The work is now the first few weeks.

James and remodeling of 1801.

but none has been so great a work.

Poorly maintained

At that time, steel construction was something new and rare, so the White House had little or no steel reinforcement. That winter's job will add steel girders and beams.

An estimated 1,000,000 people visit the White House each year and the engineers have contributed to the stress and strain, Bernard says.

Bernold says servants on the third floor have no way of getting out quickly in an emergency. The President and his family presumably would have to run up on the balcony and use a escape chute, originally installed for the late President Roosevelt.

STRAINED, NOT STOLEN

Brussels, Oct. — (CP) — Police investigating the theft of a little bottle and 34 cents found that the money and empty bottle had been moved to the back door of a house by the landlord, who insisted that he was the place for a meat to put them.

An estimated 1,000,000 Nationalist and Communist soldiers are locked in the bloody struggle for North China, with greatest pressure being made at the Buchang-Ping area (see map), north of Peking, Chang Kai-shek's capital. Fought against each other since first sight: Gen. Lin Piao, conqueror of Manchuria, and Gen. Pe Te-ri, with the former he has been holding a slight numerical superiority. Fighting is the prize for which the battle is being fought. China's high command, asserting Communist have already lost 80,000 men, have sent fresh troops into the battle of Buchang. On the other hand, the Communist media reported nine government divisions were wiped out—though could mean 90,000 men. (Central Press Canadian)

Canada Seeking Right to Build U.S. Aircraft

Washington, Nov. 18 (CP)—Sen. C. D. Howe, Canadian Trade Minister, disclosed today that Canada is seeking permission to build two types of United States military aircraft.

If the United States government grants the necessary rights, the planes will be built in Can-battle drums.

U.S. Combat Plane May be First to Go Faster Than Sound

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—The United States Navy thinks it is the fastest fighter in the world.

The XF-101 "Cutlass" may be the first combat plane to fly faster than sound.

Secretary wings were pulled down Thursday and old tail-line interceptors—shaped like an arrow-head—were replaced by wings and twin jet engines.

The Cutlass climbed like a blur, then turned and twisted with dazzling speed. While officially only in the "over 600 miles an hour" class, the craft is "capable of speeds in excess of current models of operational jets. Land or carrier based," the navy said in its announcement.

The world's speed record of 670 miles an hour was held by Sept. 19 by the United States Navy's F-100 Super Sabre. The F-100 was not "half cut" and is estimated to be capable of 700 m.p.h.

In a test flight of a British experimental plane Sept. 8, Capt. John Derry held the world's speed record for a "jet" in a screaming dive.

Penman's "71" offers every feature which contributes to comfort and unusually long wear. Its soft, natural, absorbent Merino yarn assure adequate warmth without bulky weight and are of a superior quality which gives outstanding service. Penman's attention to detail—strong buttonholes, firmly sewn buttons are examples of the reason Penman's "71" will give you much longer wear.

It's NEW through and through! When you step out in a big, handsome Monarch, what a wonderful "ride" it gives you. For in rain, sleet, snow, heat and cold, this new Monarch is just what you need. And in the way it rides, handles and responds, it performs like an ace.

You relax on deep, soft upholstery and ride, velvet-smooth over rough roads on new independent front wheel suspension with coil springs, new logical floor springs. You'll be thrilled by the performance of the new 110 V-8, V-type.

8-cylinder engine. Delighted by new ease of handling. A built-in ventilating system provides an individually controlled supply of fresh air.

Visit your Monarch dealer. Cast your eye over this car's gleaming complexion. Bask in rich upholstery and luxurious appointments. And in the way it rides, handles and responds, it performs like an ace.

"RIDE ALIVE" — new Monarch, new Monarch, new Monarch.

$5.00 FREE EVERY WEEK

The merchants advertising on this page are co-operating in a contest which gives its readers an opportunity of winning a weekly prize of $5.00. Here's how you win: Each week in one of the advertisements a word will be "Scrambled." Read the advertisements, find the scrambled word, unscramble it, and send it with the name of the "Contest Editor," Ontario Intelligencer, Box 190, Belleville. All answers must be in by the THURSDAY following publication, and winner will be announced the next week in a Business Directory. The winner will be drawn from among the correct answers, and a cheque for $5.00 mailed promptly. No member of the staff of The Ontario Intelligencer or their families are eligible for a prize.

Hollywood, Nov. 30 (AP)—
Tired young stars can take a break from Frank Morgan, because his 35th year as a film actor by making it two years ago. He is now 35, and is at once.
Reviewing his service before the camera, the actor growled:

to 1933 (he had made earlier films in the early days), Morgan showed that his resolve to remain a character actor.
"I came out to star in 'Topsy'.
It's a long story, but I really didn't do the part. John Barrymore did. It might have changed my whole career and brought me to the attention of the public as more of a leading man. Just exactly what I would have had to face the problem of transition from lover to character man.
"That is a hard thing to do. It generally takes 10 years of effort to make the jump. It's not that a leading man can't do character parts; the public just can't visualize him in them.
"Take Clark Gable. It will be hard for him to make the transition, because women think of him as a lover and wouldn't accept him in a beard."

DEAD END KICKS
BUTTER BY EYE
Oshawa, Nov. 30 (CP)—Robert
C. Foster said Friday he got a black eye when a dead deer blinded him in the eye. He said it happened on a hunting trip when one of his companions shot a deer.
While he was helping to skin the animal he severed a tendon and the deer's leg stretched over his eye, hitting him in the eye.

Knowledge of strict routine does not preclude the taking of a risk. An accurate pair will sometimes stretch. They may take a chance at guaranteeing an extra trick with some unusual play.
Unfortunately too many players lack a sound routine basis. These extend their values without knowing the exact play between the fact and their exaggeration. They may take too long in making.

Not Peculiar To Ontario

Kirkland Lake, Ont.—The Hydro Electric power is not a condition peculiar to the Province of Ontario, restrictions here are much lighter than in other parts of Canada, and in certain areas of the United States, Robert H. Saunders, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission told a joint meeting of the Hydro Club and the Junior Board of Trade here Friday night.

The Hydro chairman revealed the inspection of the guard, round the hill came the boom of guns and a 10-gun salute was fired by the Royal Canadian School of Artillery.

A. Here are a few of the new questions and answers supplied by the committee:

Q. If Communism should come to power, would you continue to go to a church?

A. Yes. You should have to choose at some time whether or not you are a Communist. I am not a Communist. If you should the church, I will stay there.

Q. Would the communists demand that you stop going to church?

A. Every copy they could find. And they would tell anybody trying to get away from them.

Q. Could my child be baptised without my consent?

A. At the risk of prison for parents who do not consent.

Q. Would my child go to Sunday School?

A. Not only would Sunday School be illegal, but also your child would be taken away from you to the police for trying to escape.

Q. How would my child learn his religion?

A. Only through what you might tell him at home, to offset the influence of the school.

The Moot Column

By BOB THOMAS

The Kilted
Bridges is not a man in which the male of the species can claim no edge because of his sex. As a woman player he is good in the business for a long time, and as an expert man player. And as he is in his prime, he is going to remain one of the great old films. "The Kilted" is a good film. "The Kilted" is a good film. "The Kilted" is a good film.

...I have just the picture out at a theatre in London house, he related.

Court of Appeal Upholds Judgment

Toronto, Nov. 23 (CP)—The Ontario Court of Appeal upholds a judgment which awarded six Sudbury district property owners a total of $3,600 for what they claimed was pollution damage caused by waste from a paper mill.

Chief Justice McRae has ruled in favor of the property owners, who hold that refuse from the company's plant polluted water in the local river near Espanola and killed fish, thereby rendering the water undrinkable. The action was brought against the company by the residents of Espanola.

100-Mile-Hour Cyclone Kills 12 In Bombay

Bombay, Nov. 23 (Reuters)—Twelve persons were killed and 20 injured during the 100-mile-an-hour cyclone which battered Bombay, centre of India's industry and commercial life, for 20 hours Monday. It was officially announced today.

A communique from the provincial government of Bombay stated that the resumption of electric and other public services was expected by tomorrow. While the cyclone was raging, Bombay and an area of 70 miles around were isolated from the rest of India, which received little news of the disaster, relayed through London.

Breen and Pilot Located Safe At Glidden, Wis.

Glidden, Wis., Nov. 23 (AP)—Weekend disappearance was a publicity gag that's going to require a lot of explaining.

That the 31-year-old Toronto native and former child movie star said, "Honest... there's nothing in it."

Breen and his pilot were located Monday night at a hotel here, where Breen registered Sunday night under the name of Braden. The sheriff said Monday's day-long search for the missing-born Thompson, from Thompson's home at Waukegan, Wis., was a "hoax."

Pop was reading his paper and she was reading hers, saying, "There's a novel idea, William." Hookbinders stationery department is averting that if you order your Christmas cards early enough you can have your own personalized greeting printed on them. I mean some little Christmas sentiment that you actually make up out of your own head," she said.

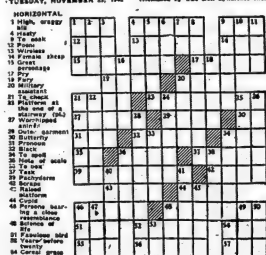

On the contrary, my dear friend, there would be a sharp point to it, but nobody would get stuck on it, so the Christmas spirit would be unmarred, pop said. For instance, suppose you sent out a card with his greeting, "Merry Xmas, oh rats, oh dear," or "Christmas greeting time is here," or "So paste this thawt inside your hat. The last time I saw you, we were mutch—too fat." Your stout friend would glance at your signature and toss your card among her other cards, and you could gloat safely in secret, pop said.

QUOTAS BOOSTED BY 2 1/2 PER CENT

Toronto Discontinues Night Blackouts

Toronto, Nov. 24 (CP)—Toronto was virtually without power for an hour this morning for the first time since the current Hydro-Electric Power Commission developed the first city-wide unit off went into effect this morning at 10 o'clock, cutting off power to the entire city, including the downtown area. The main business section of the city had been spared outside until today because of mechanical difficulties. Street cars and a few industries on electric feeder lines were the only ones to escape today's cut-off.

Municipal hydro quotas are up 2 1/2 per cent throughout the province and hydro officials are hopeful that diversion of water from the Welland river to generate plants will make still more power available.

The quota boost, coupled with the cancellation of power interruptions to the downtown area, has been the first step in the program for the present winter.

Recent late fall rains in the province have helped the supply of power available to Ontario from the Welland river, but officials believe the quota increase, brought last summer resulting in low water levels and decreased output of the Niagara structure, will be needed to meet the winter demand for electricity.

Toronto still has two power breaks each week, one on Wednesdays and one on Thursdays and 4-5 p.m. switches are pulled automatically across the entire city.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND MARSHALL COVER

U.S. President Harry Truman strolls across the road from his White House executive offices to Blair House, the first family's temporary residence, with Secretary of State George C. Marshall. It was lunch time and Mr. Truman and Secretary Marshall were meeting with other cabinet members at Blair House after their own lunch conference following Marshall's arrival from Paris. All traffic on this street is lagged with red to give the president the time of his coming and going from house to house. (Central Press Canadian)

Halifax Longshoremans Will Vote on Unloading Question

Halifax, Nov. 24 (CP)—Halifax's 2,000 longshoremen will decide whether they will resume handling ocean-going vessels diverted here by the United States ports strike.

The Halifax Longshoremen's Association (A.F.L.) Tuesday reached a decision not to work diverted vessels until tonight's meeting. This decision was a return to a stand taken Nov. 17, resounded two days later after the Halifax union had considered the local position.

As things stood early today, one of two diverted vessels were being worked on the Halifax waterfront—the liner Martha and the Wentworth. Unloading operations on both ships had started before Tuesday's announcement.

Harbor Master Dennis McFarlane said last night the longshoremen's decision would have "little effect for a week or so because there are no diverted ships due to arrive in that period."

S.A. Saunders, secretary of the Board of Trade, Tuesday said the first official to call the longshoremen had been decided not to handle the Martha and the Wentworth after the longshoremen's decision.

Mr. Saunders, head of the Halifax Board of Trade, said the longshoremen's decision would have "little effect for a week or so because there are no diverted ships due to arrive in that period."

Dieppe's Heart Beats Strongly for Canadians

By WILLIAM BOND
Times Staff Writer

Dieppe, France (CP)—Canadian liberation forces won for Canada a lasting welcome in Europe. Almost to the point of embarrassment this is true in Dieppe, where the famous 1942 landing was the second time the city was taken to assist the invasion of Canada since the victory for Canada in the second world war. Rawhide Ferguson Shatters the Air Down Halifax Way

By C. EAR CORRELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Halifax, N.S. (CP)—When "Rawhide Ferguson" recently solemnly said to his fellow Canadians that he was "going to take the air down Halifax way," he was not kidding. He was talking about the famous 1942 landing. Almost to the point of embarrassment this is true in Dieppe, where the famous 1942 landing was the second time the city was taken to assist the invasion of Canada since the victory for Canada in the second world war.

Oppose Gun Range Near Holy Island

London (CP)—Despite considerable public opposition, an anti-gun range will be established in a 1,100-acre area near Holy Island, near the English coast.

War office plans for the range were approved by a committee of the House of Commons last summer. The government said it appreciated the complaints, but it was not yet in a position to consider the exceptional advantages of the site.

One protest was made by the Bishop of Norwich, who objected to the range's proximity to the island, which is a center of Christianity in England. Complaints were also made by local farmers and bird lovers in England.

WIDOW BENEFIT—When John Ross Robertson, son of the late John Ross Robertson, died in 1918, he left a will which provided that his estate should go to his wife, Mrs. Robertson, for her life, and then to his children, the Trustees for the John Ross Robertson Foundation, for the maintenance of that institution. The will also provided that the property should not be offered for sale until the death of his widow, and that the estate, who have been operating the paper, have asked for bids. There were opened this morning.

Proceeds of the sale of the paper will be added to the estate and the entire amount will be turned over to the hospital. Under construction at present is the new 800-bed building and the present inadequate facilities. An architect's scale model of the new hospital, to cost estimated $750,000, is shown here. Although the estate will not help to build this building, it will be used for its maintenance.—(The Star)

Toronto Evening Telegram Purchased by Geo. McCullagh

Bid of $3,610,000 Highest Of Four Tenders Submitted

Toronto, Nov. 23 (CP)—The Toronto Evening Telegram has been sold to George McCullagh, publisher of the Toronto Globe and Mail for $3,610,000, the Telegram trustees announced today.

Four bids were received for the 72-year-old newspaper, and of the four bids was not in proper order. Amounts of the other bids and the names of those who made them were not disclosed.

McCullagh said Mr. McCullagh's offer was "well over" the price bid by the other three.

Accompanied by Clarence McCullagh, his son, he was accompanied by a group of Telegram employees. The conditions of sale provide that he may take over in paper Dec. 1 and must complete his payments and take possession by next Jan. 20.

The main reason for the paper's sale was the fact that a Bay View property, the property of the late John Ross Robertson estate and the late John Ross Robertson estate, was sold by next Jan. 20.

Windsor Family Sues From Times

Everywhere Evidence Of Household Routine

Windsor, Nov. 23 (CP)—Death of a young man, and another 24 hours, passed out three members of a Windsor family in a domestic setting that was as dramatic as it was tragic.

Philip Ouellette, 44-year-old Canadian Industries Limited worker, his wife Marie, 44, and their 12-year-old son, Gary, died in a house fire on Wednesday night on a cellar staircase in their tiny frame house on Windsor's Gladstone Avenue. Their 18-month-old son, Gary, died in his crib, apparently asphyxiated by smoke.

Everywhere was evidence of household routine. A washing machine was whirling in the kitchen, a stove was on, and a white cat was standing near the water heater. The house was at room temperature. The young son of the family was found in his crib, apparently asphyxiated by smoke.

Police said the fire was caused by a gas leak. The fire was caused by a gas leak. The fire was caused by a gas leak.

Another increase Granted Southern Ontario Consumers

Saunders Says Increased Rainfalls Boost Output

Electric Power Commission Announced Today

Toronto, Nov. 23 (CP)—Southern Ontario municipalities have been granted an additional 15 per cent in the daily electric power, the Ontario Electric Power Commission announced today.

The increase was made possible by heavy rainfalls in the Northern Ontario and Quebec power sources, hydro officials said. The increase is in addition to a 5 1/2 per cent increase in the rate of electricity in the city of Toronto.

The Ontario Electric Power Commission announced at the same time that the city's one-hour morning out-of-use was eliminated. Toronto now has only one daily power shortage, between 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. A 4-hour evening out-of-use was eliminated.

Toronto Pastors Claim CBC Policies Have Driven Church Services off the Air Sunday

By WILLIAM WILSON
Ottawa, Nov. 23 (CP)—The Council of Churches in Toronto was subpoenaed to discuss today complaints of a Toronto clergyman that CBC policies have driven church services off the air and scheduled Sunday evening broadcasting.

The complaint was being presented by Canon J. W. Ward of St. Stephen's in Toronto and was the subject of a report to the council. It was to have been discussed Wednesday but was postponed.

A. D. Dunton, chairman of the CBC Board of Governors, issued a formal statement Wednesday, declaring that the CBC had driven services off the air. His statement was issued when the council served Ward's complaints on its agenda.

Canon Ward had charged that the CBC favored the secular and profane over the religious. He gave as an example which private stations have followed, the CBC's refusal to broadcast as far as radio is concerned "concerning the weather" on Sunday evening has been accomplished.

Canon Ward said that the CBC's refusal to broadcast church services from the air, and its refusal to broadcast the weather on Sunday evening, has driven private stations to broadcast church services in Toronto which had been refused by the CBC.

Little Benny's Note Book

I'm not suppose to take any apples without asking first, and we had let me have 2 already today, the first one easy and the second after a short argument. I know there was not much chance for another one, but anyway I was wondering about it and I was watching her swing on her sawing machine, and I saw there's still a lot of apples down there. I went to get them. I saw they were plenty left. I said, didn't I tell you not to take any more apples today?

SYNTONA IS GREAT MEDICINE

"Cleaned Up Stomach Gas and Indigestion From Which I Formerly Could Get No Relief," Says This Man. Appetite is Improved, Free of Headache and Dizziness.

"For a number of years I suffered from stomach disorders and could get nothing to help me, but the very first bottle of Syntona convinced me it is a great medicine," said Mr. Fred R. Kelly, 502 Duke St., Preston, Ont., in a recent letter.

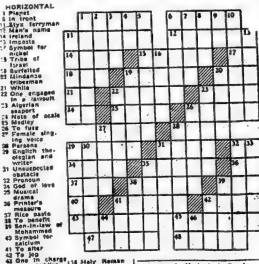

"After years of suffering from stomach disorders and indigestion, I was finally cured by Syntona. I was able to eat and sleep again, and my appetite was improved. I am now free of headache and dizziness, and I am in good health. I am very grateful to you for the help you have given me."

Mr. Fred R. Kelly, 502 Duke St., Preston, Ont., is a man who has suffered from stomach disorders and indigestion for many years. He was finally cured by Syntona, a medicine that has helped many other people with similar problems. He is now in good health and is very grateful to the company that made Syntona.

Walter Thompson Relinquishes Post With T.C.A.

Rules Reach Owner
Not Obligated to Provide Life-Saving Devices

Montreal, Nov. 26.—Walter S. Thompson, director of public relations and advertising, Canadian National Railway and Trans-Canada Air Lines, is relinquishing his air line position as of December 31, it was announced today following a meeting of the T. C. A. Board of Directors. He will devote full time and attention to the railway and its other auxiliary services.

C. B. McGregor, president of T. C. A., on behalf of the board and himself, made grateful acknowledgment of the valuable services rendered by Mr. Thompson to the air line since its inception in 1927. His outstanding knowledge and experience in the public relations and advertising fields have been of immeasurable advantage to the company. In eleven years T. C. A. has expanded from 129 miles to nearly 16,000 miles of scheduled routes across Canada to United States centers, across the Atlantic to Great Britain, to Bermuda and to the Caribbean, and Mr. Thompson feels in view of his other responsibilities that the time has arrived for the air line to establish a public relations department of its own.

Will Try To Form New Cabinet

Brussels, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Prime Minister Paul-Henri Spaak agreed today to make an attempt to form a new Belgian government.

Spaak accepted to the request of Prince Regent Charles after the Belgian minister, Gaston Ryssels, told the Regent he had been unable to form a cabinet in three days of trying.

If Spaak fails again to form a government, Belgium may be faced with a political crisis that might be solved only by general elections, following the dissolution of parliament.

SUPERSTICIOUS DAYS

London, Oct. Nov. 26 (CP)—Increase in hydro quotas has brought suspicion of a new hydro official said the Toronto Evening Herald in which the following is a morning out in the area.

Security Council Stays in Paris For Christmas

Paris, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Security Council will remain in Paris during the Christmas holidays for any emergency meeting, United Nations officials said.

The schedule calls for the council to hold regular meetings here until Dec. 16, though the current assembly hopes to wind up Dec. 15.

No council delegates are scheduled between Dec. 16 and Dec. 31, but the council probably will meet at least once in that period. By council rules it must meet once every two weeks.

Most of the chief delegates are planning to go to New York after Dec. 18 or after Christmas here. Fernand Van Langhebe of Belgium will be chairman of the council in December, United Nations officials said.

At the end of the year, the council will leave the council Dec. 31, but it is not believed it is necessary to go to New York for a possible meeting at that time before the new year.

Gen. A. G. L. McLaughlin of Canada, who will be chairman in January, will leave soon for visits in Britain and Canada. He plans to be in Lake Success, N. Y., and will call a council session there if necessary.

ABOLISH OF BLAME

Port Arthur, Nov. 26.—(CP)—Shot accidentally through the neck on a hunting trip, Edmund Williams, 70, of Port Arthur, absolved the man who shot him before today's coroner's inquest.

Williams was brought to a hospital here after being wounded in the back near Port Arthur. A companion, Michael Durbak, 34, of Port Arthur, noticed something wrong moving in the bush and fired. The object was Williams.

Although suffering from loss of blood, Williams made a pencil and several verbal notes, one saying that Durbak was "a" fault.

WILL HOLD'S

Wellington, Nov. 26.—(Reuters)—New Zealand's special Royal Tour stamps, already being sold in four denominations, will be held and their "ultimate disposal" decided on later, Postmaster-general Fred Bakke said Thursday. The tour has been cancelled because of the King's illness.

FACE CHARGES IN TORONTO
Toronto, Nov. 26 (CP)—Two men were arrested by Toronto police at Hastings Thursday and have been brought here to face fraud charges.

Detectives arrested Vernon Morrow, 31, on a charge involving $1,000 and Lloyd Baker, 34, on a warrant charging false pretences to a sex deal.

Assault on Official, Fights Feature Rousing Hockey Games In District Loop Twin Bill

Roaring hockey, fist fights, ambulance from about seven feet assault on an official by a player and a fight between two police officers. These were the highlights of the twin bill at the Astoria Arena last night when Trenton and the Northern Electric and the official's fight were the main events at the expense of the Co. hour Chicago by a 6-1 score and the Springfield Trenton (Chicago) won in their third straight victory when it turned back Northern Electric by a 4-0 count.

The second game between Northern Electric and Trenton was one of the best games of the season up to the point when the row broke out. Lou Schmidt, Trenton defenseman apparently injured at a penalty started by the official's retaliation. Players stepped between the two—Lou Schmidt did not get out. The fight broke out again outside, a man with another player and police were called to halt the proceedings.

The crowd surged down from the upper seats on the ice and for a moment a Donnybrook created pandemonium. The players on the scene and had no account of the matter down on the ice. The fight broke out on the ice. Schmidt received a matchstick-club penalty for his part in the affair.

Trenton Wins 6, Chicago 1

Players, defeated in their first two starts were not out of the game and went on the offensive at the opening whistle. They swept in to the attack poked by Al Middleton and Charlie and put on a sustained offensive for the first time. Chicago's attacks lacked co-ordination and the games were going after the first whistle. With some mistakes, the Chicago players were able to score a goal. The Springfield Trenton (Chicago) won in their third straight victory when it turned back Northern Electric by a 4-0 count.

The third period saw both teams play the best hockey of the night. The Springfield Trenton (Chicago) tried to cut down the margin. Both teams played well. The Springfield Trenton (Chicago) had a margin in the third period. The Springfield Trenton (Chicago) had a margin in the third period. CHIPS OFF THE SPORTS BLOCK

By GEORGE H. CARVER, Sports Editor

This afternoon, like any other hockey afternoon, the crowd flocked to the arena for a night of fast, snappy hockey. The Springfield Trenton (Chicago) won in their third straight victory when it turned back Northern Electric by a 4-0 count.

Unusually Fights that came at a hockey match result from heated tempers which usually and in some instances and the participants cooling off in the showers. But last night's episode was entirely unusual. For, the Springfield Trenton (Chicago) won in their third straight victory when it turned back Northern Electric by a 4-0 count.

When the officials and player started for the dressing room the referee was the first to be seen. The Springfield Trenton (Chicago) won in their third straight victory when it turned back Northern Electric by a 4-0 count.

THE LIGHTEST POWER CHAIN SAW ON THE MARKET TODAY

WITH THE REVOLUTIONARY NEW MULTIPOINT ENGINE

The PIONEER is the answer to the great demand for a new-man power saw which gives continuous reliable service under all working conditions, and will efficiently handle up to 30' cutting attack.

A Deluxe Model At No Extra Cost— LEADING THE FIELD WITH...

- (1) THE NEW "MULTIPOINT" ENGINE... I.E.L. engineers have developed this revolutionary new engine which is rated at 41 H.P. This is accomplished by utilizing a high compression ratio which combined with the new increasing cylinder and a proper valve timing, produces a tremendous torque and power output which is maintained over a very wide range of speeds giving a motor an unusual degree of "TORQUE".
- (2) TRIGGER SWITCH... Right position cutting at blade with finger tip control.
- (3) FINGERGRIP CUTTING... The new "FINGERGRIP" design of the cork hand clutch and can be operated in either the falling or backing position with the least shock of the chain.
- (4) DIFFERENTIAL DOUBLE-ACTING OIL PUMP... Simplified thrust-free design ensures constant supply of oil from either reservoir in bar and chain.
- (5) AUTOMATIC REWIND STATOR... A trouble-free automatic starter of new design. (Pat. applied for)

Supplied with Bar and Chain, 14" - 18" - 24" - 30".

Farmers Discover Ship-Like Object on Mount Ararat

By EDWIN B. GREENWALD (AP)—The shipwrecked remains of an object which resembles a ship were found high up on the snow-capped peaks of Mount Ararat.

Apparently hidden for centuries, it came to light last week when mountaineers, while on a recent expedition, noticed a great number of objects resembling a "house of boats" or a "ship" which had been seen here by the first explorers. The object, which actually could be taken as a sign to establish the ship.

Shukra Asan, a farmer who was largely responsible for the discovery, frontier district, told about the discovery in an interview to the Associated Press Bureau there. This is the first time in September a Kurdish farmer, who was about 15,000-foot peak and could have been seen here had been seen before, although he had been up there many times. He said he found it and then climbed again to establish it.

There, he said, was the proof that the ship was a ship. The object was down with tons of melting snow, and he had seen it for more than two months. The object was completely covered, but the rest of the object was visible.

The contour of the ship, he said, was the same as the ship of the object was shaped like a ship, he said, and he said that the size of a house.

Canadian Diplomat Hails Holland's Post-War Effort

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Paris (CP)—Pierre Dupuy, Canada's self-styled "Stone Age" diplomat, has been in Holland on an extraordinary mission.

The mission, he says, is to see how 20 years ahead of other countries in post-war reconstruction.

The days of the Canadian ambassador at The Hague have been "extraordinary" Dupuy says, in rebuilding countries.

"I really remarkable," he said in an interview. "Things amount back to pre-war. There is no more war on the streets in Paris or New York."

Canadian-Holland relations are another of his enthusiasms. The most-mentioned man in Holland has been Canada's contact with the Netherlands.

Netherlands have a special admiration for the Dutch. Dupuy said he was held at a luncheon by the Dutch king's court.

He said he had been in the Netherlands for 10 days. He said he had been in the Netherlands for 10 days.

Another thing I'm proud of is Holland's emigration record. We have nearly 10,000 people this year and we have nearly 10,000 people this year.

British Settlers Think N. Z. Hosts Lacking in Humor

By FRANK SMITH
New Zealand Press

ANGLICAN, N.Z. Nov. (CP)—British immigrants agree that New Zealanders are friendly and hospitable, but they find them nearly all lacking in humor. "You would think they had all been brought up in the desert," declared one settler.

Other country people, who are from Europe and America, complained that New Zealanders are too serious and too formal.

The complaints have now been formally investigated by a Land lecturer in philosophy at Auckland University, who finds that New Zealanders are not as serious as they are.

Oil Out of Coal Is New Industry In South Africa

By FRANK SMITH
New Zealand Press

JOHANNESBURG (CP)—A $60,000,000 industry to strip oil from coal is to be established in South Africa.

The Union has great reserves of coal, but the coal is too hard to burn in furnaces or grates, but suitable for conversion into liquid fuel.

The Liquid Fuel Advisory Board has recommended to the government that the production of oil from coal should be started.

The minister of defense, P. C. van der Byl, said that the production of oil from coal would be a valuable contribution to the country's defense.

The Movie Column

by BOB THOMAS
Hollywood, Nov. 27. (AP)—Ray Kruger continued to grind out his songs. "The Horse Sense Bridge" was his latest. These boys probably are the only ones among song writers who are not paid for their work. They are paid by Paramount to write the songs for the films they are making. They are paid to write the songs for the films they are making. They are paid to write the songs for the films they are making.

Chances you had in bridge play depend on what you can afford to lose. Or on the relative gain. Or on what you hope there may be by any other thought that seems to you.

In a seemingly hopeless contact, try something that may look impossible. In a contract that you cannot lose, by something that may produce extra tricks, do what you have been talking about this deal:

NORTH		SOUTH
♠ 8	♠ 8	♠ 8	♠ 8
♥ 5	♥ 5	♥ 5	♥ 5
♦ 10	♦ 10	♦ 10	♦ 10
♣ 2	♣ 2	♣ 2	♣ 2

South was the declarer in a contract of four trumps. At first he looked as if he may lose a trump, a club and a club. He pulled in 12 tricks when opening lead from west was heart diamonds. To the first trick dummy played the diamond and east led the jack. South won this with heart ace. The dummy then led a club and east a fourth bid. It is assumed that west has the other minor rank. So south led back heart ten.

Team and Fans Due for Royal Welcome Home

Calgary, Nov. 29. (CP)—One of the largest demonstrations in the history of the city will greet the Calgary Grey Cup champion Stampeders on their return Wednesday.

Attorney M. W. N. M. Murrin, president of the Stampeders, said the city will have an opportunity of turning out to welcome the champions.

Full details of the welcome preparations are under preparation but the team will be received at the city streets and will cheer from the balcony of downtown hotels.

Following the word of Stampeders' 1937 victory over Ottawa Rough Riders, Saturday night fans formed a long line and made-danced down the main streets.

Majority of the fans however, will be "staying" for a real football "western welcome Wednesday."

Business almost ceased in the city when the game was on as young and old with cars lined in the streets.

Most ardent fans following the game from a hospital bed were Vivian Rowe, attractive wife of Stampeders' star back, and captain, Paul Rowe. Mr. Rowe gave birth to a second son, Robert, a few hours before the game.

Stampeders just had it with "her" Mrs. Rowe said with a happy smile.

The game pushed over of other events for the most part of both Calgary newspapers.

Monday edition of the Calgary Herald devoted its entire front page to pictures of the game and the Stampeders.

Stamps' Fans Put on Great Show at Hotel

Thursday, Nov. 29. (CP)—It might have looked like New Year's Eve and it certainly sounded like New Year's Eve. But it wasn't.

It was merely a bunch of happy Stampeders celebrating the first Grey Cup the football city has ever won.

Hundreds of happy Stampeders packed the main lobby of Toronto's largest hotel Saturday for a bit of a hot-dog.

They set up the goal posts in the lobby, picked it from wall to wall with counter-stuffed slapping, rickety chairs. It was so crowded that two guitar-strumming country-makers used a table top for feet of strumming anybody's eye out.

One enterprising individual was busy buying up the goal posts and selling them for $1 each.

All around the messianic balcony, used Stampeders' stand, they just watching.

The crowd sang everything but "God Save the King" and "The Star-Spangled Banner" of course, on western songs.

Several persons—obviously from Ottawa—were wearing page to pictures of the game and the Stampeders.

The Calgary Herald devoted its entire front page to pictures of the game and the Stampeders.

Two defense stalwarts of the Belleville Huskies players are Thomas Schreier and Bill McKay who will be seen in action against the Stampeders.

Sports Roundup

By MICH FULFORD, JR.
New York, Nov. 29. (AP)—A short time ago, Norm Danahy, coach of the suburban Weequahic University football team, explaining of his school's interest in a post-season bowl bid because that would mean conceding the winter sports program.

In a small college the athletes have to double up. As for the big game, before the football players have had a chance to knock the most off their chests, here comes the basketball season in full swing.

The "Big Game" is the football season in full swing. As for the big game, before the football players have had a chance to knock the most off their chests, here comes the basketball season in full swing.

Diabetes DANGER SIGNAL. Diabetes is more common than a fat cat and a sports writer supposed to get some rest!

The season's greatest example of what often is, in our opinion, was Saturday's national A.U. cross-country race at Detroit.

Imagine running 6 1/2 miles to win two thousand dollars at Detroit. Rhode Island State College junior, Ed in heading out Capt. John of Philadelphia.

The New York 2000-yard race presented a broun in Natick, Mass., in completing the course in a so-called athletic with the pleasure of a day.

Frank Miller, Yankee pitcher, is an athlete of the off-beat and recently landed the book of Joe DiMaggio's books of the New York, N.Y. bank. He ought to be able to resist temptation.

FORMOSA WOOD CROWS. The main agricultural crops of Formosa are once sugar and rice.

Spot of Heat Blocking, Wot—Above is an action shot of the Rockets-Trenton Flyers game played a week ago.

Young Mr. Boer's upward arm does not mean that he's about to tip the Flyers with a rabbit punch, nor is he waving to the girlfriend. The impact threw him off-balance as you'll note by the position of his skate. Incidentally Rockets won the match 4-2.

Face of Scotland Is Changing, Dark Days Gone

By STUART WOODWARD
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)
London, Nov. 23.—The face of Scotland is changing, and changing for the better. The Woodhouse, secretary of State for Scotland, said yesterday in an address to the S. S. Club.

The dark days when Scotland labored under depression and every second person was a potential immigrant are a thing of the past. A triumph at which the traditional bards will be served to the skies of bards.

"For the last thirty years at least we have been situated in a position of national inferiority," he said, "and now a table on which the sword of Robert the Bruce had its place of honor."

"We stand at home in Scotland to celebrate St. Andrew's Day by commending our country, its achievements, its progress, its place in the world, and we will not expect its best that will be done in the future."

Mr. Woodhouse said that the Scottish people, with their spirit of enterprise, will be able to make the most of the new opportunities that are being offered to them.

Cripps May Visit Paris in Attempt To Break Deadlock

Paris, Nov. 23.—(Reuters)—Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer, may come to Paris this weekend in an effort to break the deadlock with which Marshall plan countries have been confronted by Britain's foreign recovery plan. It was learned today.

The British plan, as disclosed here, has been a subject of discussion in the Marshall plan countries and, because of its publicity, is said to have completely discredited the timetable for producing an agreed four-year "master plan" for all Europe.

Marshall plan countries had promised to lead this "master plan" to the reviving Marshall aid committee, but the British plan, as disclosed here, has been a subject of discussion in the Marshall plan countries and, because of its publicity, is said to have completely discredited the timetable for producing an agreed four-year "master plan" for all Europe.
